

Association: the two classes communicate with one another

Dependency: one class relies on or makes use of another

Generalization: connects a subclass to its superclass (is-a relationship)

Aggregation: connects to classes related through a has-a relationship

Composition: one class is made up of instances of another

CSC 120 Architecture Diagram:

